

Los Angeles Daily Herald.

VOLUME I.

LOS ANGELES, FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 14, 1873.

NUMBER 38.

Los Angeles Herald.

Published every morning except Monday.
THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY.
OFFICE—Herald Steam Book and Job
Printing House, Spring street, opposite the Court House.

TERMS:
Per annum, by mail or express, $10
Six months, $6
Three months, $4
Delivered by carriers, per week, 25 cents
Advertisements inserted at liberal rates.

THE MAN ON THE CLIFF.

The circumstances of this story can, I have no doubt, be satisfactorily explained; but I do not pretend to explain them. I can only relate the events as they occurred to me, leaving the reader to form his own judgment, scientific or otherwise, upon the narrative.

In the summer of 1869, an unusual, warm and sunny day, I was, I remember, in the habit of visiting the North coast of Spain on professional business.

I am a painter, and I started off to ramble the best way I liked, to the sunny land—through Paris, the gay city of pleasure, through the fertile plains of Languedoc to the West, and to the Pyrenees, which towered almost above my head, reflecting the last rays of the setting sun in tints of gorgeous splendor, as I sighted the little town of Bayona, my summer's evening. On through Biarritz to quaint St. Jean de Luce, nestling at the foot of the mountains, with the melodious sound of sheep-bells far up on the heights floating on the evening air, and the lights from the cottage windows dotting the hillside, like distant glowworms in a forest of embosoming green.

I was loath to leave this sweet spot, with the quaint costumes and kindly peasantry; for I had spent a happy time in that border-town of France, once renowned in history, now lumbering in oblivion, with the memory of the past only clinging to its grey walls. But I had to see another country, and my time was short; so one morning I left the lumbering town far behind me, and had at last started on my onward and upward journey across the Pyrenees.

I will say little of the difficulties and trials of patience which ensued during those weary hours. Happy was I when, skirting ruin, I entered Spanish territory, and drove at nightfall into the town of San Sebastian. The reader will probably inquire why I am dragging him through scenes with which he is probably as familiar as myself; but the object I have in view is to show how indisposed my mind was at this time to any supernatural impression. This must be clearly understood. And now for my story.

I had finally left San Sebastian, and settled myself and my belongings in a small fishing village about fifteen miles to the West, where I had arrived early on a clear summer morning at the end of July. I was employed for a few days in putting my various little impediments into something like order—which, after the desultory habits I had acquired since leaving England, was not an easy task; but I soon found myself fairly settled and comfortable in my little clean cottage, on the summit of a cliff commanding a fine and uninterrupted view of the sea.

I was never tired admiring the gorgeous sunsets, which I think I have rarely seen in my travels to do—discerning as on that lonely coast; and evening after evening would I walk out from my dwelling, and linger till the rosy tints melted to a saffron hue, and then changed slowly to a pale golden sky, through which the stars, as yet dimly, and though I knew it not, I must have swooned.

It was several weeks before I recovered consciousness. When I did so, I found myself in my own room, weakly, as I have every reason to believe, having come to the cliff, and being so unprepared for rough weather—I determined to retrace my steps with all the speed in my power; and strapping my painting trunks upon my back again, I turned for home.

How from the place where I stood, the cliff fell sheer half way to the beach; then rocks of great magnitude ran along its base, and extended far into the sea, presenting a grand and yet gloomy sight, as the dark water dashed over them, throwing up feathery spray high into the air.

As I turned to leave the spot, I was suddenly startled apparently from far out to sea. It seemed like the faint beat of a drum, rising and falling with the strength of the wind, and strangely mingling with the roar and dash of the waves upon the shore.

Although it was dark for that time of the evening, I could yet plainly discern the entire surface of the ocean, and not a trace of a vessel of any description was there in sight. Puzzled by this mysterious occurrence, but thinking it was most likely caused by the action of a strong wind blowing from the subterranean cavern, I was once more about to battle my way against the tumultuous wind homeward, when it appeared to me that the sound was approaching nearer—nearer, floating across the dark, troubled waters in a prolonged roll, as from a great number of drums. They were beating what seemed to be the call to quarters, from some unknown ship; for, look as I might, not a vestige of one was to be seen upon the ocean.

As it came nearer—not five hundred yards apparently from where I stood, I distinctly heard the single and double beat, and all the varied sounds produced by the drummer's art; but still this awful fact: I was compelled to acknowledge there was no ship in sight, and the sound sprang as from the bosom of the waters! As I stood spell-bound, with all my nerves stretched to a full tension, and my gaze eagerly fixed on the sea beneath my feet, I felt a strange feeling come over me, as though something were behind or at my side.

At first, if my life had depended upon it, I could not have had the power of will or body to turn around. A strange terror had overcome me, and my feet seemed rooted to the ground, but, at length, with a sudden effort of determination, I turned, and beheld a sight that filled me with horror. A gleam of the watery moon now stole out from behind a cloud, and disclosed the dark figure of a man, or what seemed to be a man, standing erect, but in an attitude of expectancy on the verge of the cliff. From whence he had appeared, and when, I was quite unable to say, as I had not noticed his presence before, but he stood there, wrapped in an old-fashioned mantle, and a great number of bodies, his head bent downwards, as if I could see nothing as yet of his face.

Suddenly the roll of the drum recommenced, and with a quick motion of his head, he gazed long and earnestly out to sea.

Never shall I forget that face. To this day I can recall no individual feature but the eyes. There are times indeed, when you are quite unable to take in, as it were, more than one particular of a mass of events; and it was so now. I can distinctly remember this man's eyes, for they were remarkably brilliant and glowing; what the rest of his face resembled I cannot tell, already was I so confused as to see nothing more of him.

Suddenly I saw, moving from the shadowy mist which now almost covered the ocean, the outline of a large and stately vessel, gliding almost imperceptibly through the water, but emitting long and rapid, except the prolonged roll of the drum, which rang out with startling effect upon the still night air. As I noted its quiet onward progress, I saw for the first time, to my horror, that she was steering straight upon the reef which lay along the cliffs at my feet.

I tried in vain to call loudly, to warn those on board of her; but my voice died in my throat, and do what I could, I was unable to bring forth a sound. In an agony of fear, turning towards the figure at my side, I saw him standing as before, his head holding at arm's length above his head a great light, which flickered fitfully over the troubled sea below.

Nearer came the phantom ship, until the bow of the vessel nearly touched the rocky shore, throwing off the lurid light which she carried on board. Already I felt sick and dizzy; a few more seconds and I should have lost my senses. At length, with a vigorous and last effort, I threw off my antagonist, who, missing his precarious footing, disappeared off the cliff, and I felt myself free. The vessel disappeared suddenly, as if the black night had finally engulfed him. Then I seemed to hear voices and a grinding crash—but afar off, mistily as from another land; for I felt I was becoming unconscious, my senses were fading, and though I knew it not, I must have swooned.

It was several weeks before I recovered consciousness. When I did so, I found myself in my own room, weakly, as I have every reason to believe, having come to the cliff, and being so unprepared for rough weather—I determined to retrace my steps with all the speed in my power; and strapping my painting trunks upon my back again, I turned for home.

How from the place where I stood, the cliff fell sheer half way to the beach; then rocks of great magnitude ran along its base, and extended far into the sea, presenting a grand and yet gloomy sight, as the dark water dashed over them, throwing up feathery spray high into the air.

As I turned to leave the spot, I was suddenly startled apparently from far out to sea. It seemed like the faint beat of a drum, rising and falling with the strength of the wind, and strangely mingling with the roar and dash of the waves upon the shore.

Although it was dark for that time of the evening, I could yet plainly discern the entire surface of the ocean, and not a trace of a vessel of any description was there in sight. Puzzled by this mysterious occurrence, but thinking it was most likely caused by the action of a strong wind blowing from the subterranean cavern, I was once more about to battle my way against the tumultuous wind homeward, when it appeared to me that the sound was approaching nearer—nearer, floating across the dark, troubled waters in a prolonged roll, as from a great number of drums. They were beating what seemed to be the call to quarters, from some unknown ship; for, look as I might, not a vestige of one was to be seen upon the ocean.

As it came nearer—not five hundred yards apparently from where I stood, I distinctly heard the single and double beat, and all the varied sounds produced by the drummer's art; but still this awful fact: I was compelled to acknowledge there was no ship in sight, and the sound sprang as from the bosom of the waters! As I stood spell-bound, with all my nerves stretched to a full tension, and my gaze eagerly fixed on the sea beneath my feet, I felt a strange feeling come over me, as though something were behind or at my side.

At first, if my life had depended upon it, I could not have had the power of will or body to turn around. A strange terror had overcome me, and my feet seemed rooted to the ground, but, at length, with a sudden effort of determination, I turned, and beheld a sight that filled me with horror. A gleam of the watery moon now stole out from behind a cloud, and disclosed the dark figure of a man, or what seemed to be a man, standing erect, but in an attitude of expectancy on the verge of the cliff. From whence he had appeared, and when, I was quite unable to say, as I had not noticed his presence before, but he stood there, wrapped in an old-fashioned mantle, and a great number of bodies, his head bent downwards, as if I could see nothing as yet of his face.

Suddenly the roll of the drum recommenced, and with a quick motion of his head, he gazed long and earnestly out to sea.

Never shall I forget that face. To this day I can recall no individual feature but the eyes. There are times indeed, when you are quite unable to take in, as it were, more than one particular of a mass of events; and it was so now. I can distinctly remember this man's eyes, for they were remarkably brilliant and glowing; what the rest of his face resembled I cannot tell, already was I so confused as to see nothing more of him.

Suddenly I saw, moving from the shadowy mist which now almost covered the ocean, the outline of a large and stately vessel, gliding almost imperceptibly through the water, but emitting long and rapid, except the prolonged roll of the drum, which rang out with startling effect upon the still night air. As I noted its quiet onward progress, I saw for the first time, to my horror, that she was steering straight upon the reef which lay along the cliffs at my feet.

I tried in vain to call loudly, to warn those on board of her; but my voice died in my throat, and do what I could, I was unable to bring forth a sound. In an agony of fear, turning towards the figure at my side, I saw him standing as before, his head holding at arm's length above his head a great light, which flickered fitfully over the troubled sea below.

Nearer came the phantom ship, until the bow of the vessel nearly touched the rocky shore, throwing off the lurid light which she carried on board. Already I felt sick and dizzy; a few more seconds and I should have lost my senses. At length, with a vigorous and last effort, I threw off my antagonist, who, missing his precarious footing, disappeared off the cliff, and I felt myself free. The vessel disappeared suddenly, as if the black night had finally engulfed him. Then I seemed to hear voices and a grinding crash—but afar off, mistily as from another land; for I felt I was becoming unconscious, my senses were fading, and though I knew it not, I must have swooned.

It was several weeks before I recovered consciousness. When I did so, I found myself in my own room, weakly, as I have every reason to believe, having come to the cliff, and being so unprepared for rough weather—I determined to retrace my steps with all the speed in my power; and strapping my painting trunks upon my back again, I turned for home.

How from the place where I stood, the cliff fell sheer half way to the beach; then rocks of great magnitude ran along its base, and extended far into the sea, presenting a grand and yet gloomy sight, as the dark water dashed over them, throwing up feathery spray high into the air.

As I turned to leave the spot, I was suddenly startled apparently from far out to sea. It seemed like the faint beat of a drum, rising and falling with the strength of the wind, and strangely mingling with the roar and dash of the waves upon the shore.

Although it was dark for that time of the evening, I could yet plainly discern the entire surface of the ocean, and not a trace of a vessel of any description was there in sight. Puzzled by this mysterious occurrence, but thinking it was most likely caused by the action of a strong wind blowing from the subterranean cavern, I was once more about to battle my way against the tumultuous wind homeward, when it appeared to me that the sound was approaching nearer—nearer, floating across the dark, troubled waters in a prolonged roll, as from a great number of drums. They were beating what seemed to be the call to quarters, from some unknown ship; for, look as I might, not a vestige of one was to be seen upon the ocean.

As it came nearer—not five hundred yards apparently from where I stood, I distinctly heard the single and double beat, and all the varied sounds produced by the drummer's art; but still this awful fact: I was compelled to acknowledge there was no ship in sight, and the sound sprang as from the bosom of the waters! As I stood spell-bound, with all my nerves stretched to a full tension, and my gaze eagerly fixed on the sea beneath my feet, I felt a strange feeling come over me, as though something were behind or at my side.

At first, if my life had depended upon it, I could not have had the power of will or body to turn around. A strange terror had overcome me, and my feet seemed rooted to the ground, but, at length, with a sudden effort of determination, I turned, and beheld a sight that filled me with horror. A gleam of the watery moon now stole out from behind a cloud, and disclosed the dark figure of a man, or what seemed to be a man, standing erect, but in an attitude of expectancy on the verge of the cliff. From whence he had appeared, and when, I was quite unable to say, as I had not noticed his presence before, but he stood there, wrapped in an old-fashioned mantle, and a great number of bodies, his head bent downwards, as if I could see nothing as yet of his face.

Suddenly the roll of the drum recommenced, and with a quick motion of his head, he gazed long and earnestly out to sea.

Never shall I forget that face. To this day I can recall no individual feature but the eyes. There are times indeed, when you are quite unable to take in, as it were, more than one particular of a mass of events; and it was so now. I can distinctly remember this man's eyes, for they were remarkably brilliant and glowing; what the rest of his face resembled I cannot tell, already was I so confused as to see nothing more of him.

Suddenly I saw, moving from the shadowy mist which now almost covered the ocean, the outline of a large and stately vessel, gliding almost imperceptibly through the water, but emitting long and rapid, except the prolonged roll of the drum, which rang out with startling effect upon the still night air. As I noted its quiet onward progress, I saw for the first time, to my horror, that she was steering straight upon the reef which lay along the cliffs at my feet.

I tried in vain to call loudly, to warn those on board of her; but my voice died in my throat, and do what I could, I was unable to bring forth a sound. In an agony of fear, turning towards the figure at my side, I saw him standing as before, his head holding at arm's length above his head a great light, which flickered fitfully over the troubled sea below.

Nearer came the phantom ship, until the bow of the vessel nearly touched the rocky shore, throwing off the lurid light which she carried on board. Already I felt sick and dizzy; a few more seconds and I should have lost my senses. At length, with a vigorous and last effort, I threw off my antagonist, who, missing his precarious footing, disappeared off the cliff, and I felt myself free. The vessel disappeared suddenly, as if the black night had finally engulfed him. Then I seemed to hear voices and a grinding crash—but afar off, mistily as from another land; for I felt I was becoming unconscious, my senses were fading, and though I knew it not, I must have swooned.

It was several weeks before I recovered consciousness. When I did so, I found myself in my own room, weakly, as I have every reason to believe, having come to the cliff, and being so unprepared for rough weather—I determined to retrace my steps with all the speed in my power; and strapping my painting trunks upon my back again, I turned for home.

How from the place where I stood, the cliff fell sheer half way to the beach; then rocks of great magnitude ran along its base, and extended far into the sea, presenting a grand and yet gloomy sight, as the dark water dashed over them, throwing up feathery spray high into the air.

As I turned to leave the spot, I was suddenly startled apparently from far out to sea. It seemed like the faint beat of a drum, rising and falling with the strength of the wind, and strangely mingling with the roar and dash of the waves upon the shore.

Although it was dark for that time of the evening, I could yet plainly discern the entire surface of the ocean, and not a trace of a vessel of any description was there in sight. Puzzled by this mysterious occurrence, but thinking it was most likely caused by the action of a strong wind blowing from the subterranean cavern, I was once more about to battle my way against the tumultuous wind homeward, when it appeared to me that the sound was approaching nearer—nearer, floating across the dark, troubled waters in a prolonged roll, as from a great number of drums. They were beating what seemed to be the call to quarters, from some unknown ship; for, look as I might, not a vestige of one was to be seen upon the ocean.

As it came nearer—not five hundred yards apparently from where I stood, I distinctly heard the single and double beat, and all the varied sounds produced by the drummer's art; but still this awful fact: I was compelled to acknowledge there was no ship in sight, and the sound sprang as from the bosom of the waters! As I stood spell-bound, with all my nerves stretched to a full tension, and my gaze eagerly fixed on the sea beneath my feet, I felt a strange feeling come over me, as though something were behind or at my side.

At first, if my life had depended upon it, I could not have had the power of will or body to turn around. A strange terror had overcome me, and my feet seemed rooted to the ground, but, at length, with a sudden effort of determination, I turned, and beheld a sight that filled me with horror. A gleam of the watery moon now stole out from behind a cloud, and disclosed the dark figure of a man, or what seemed to be a man, standing erect, but in an attitude of expectancy on the verge of the cliff. From whence he had appeared, and when, I was quite unable to say, as I had not noticed his presence before, but he stood there, wrapped in an old-fashioned mantle, and a great number of bodies, his head bent downwards, as if I could see nothing as yet of his face.

Suddenly the roll of the drum recommenced, and with a quick motion of his head, he gazed long and earnestly out to sea.

Never shall I forget that face. To this day I can recall no individual feature but the eyes. There are times indeed, when you are quite unable to take in, as it were, more than one particular of a mass of events; and it was so now. I can distinctly remember this man's eyes, for they were remarkably brilliant and glowing; what the rest of his face resembled I cannot tell, already was I so confused as to see nothing more of him.

Suddenly I saw, moving from the shadowy mist which now almost covered the ocean, the outline of a large and stately vessel, gliding almost imperceptibly through the water, but emitting long and rapid, except the prolonged roll of the drum, which rang out with startling effect upon the still night air. As I noted its quiet onward progress, I saw for the first time, to my horror, that she was steering straight upon the reef which lay along the cliffs at my feet.

I tried in vain to call loudly, to warn those on board of her; but my voice died in my throat, and do what I could, I was unable to bring forth a sound. In an agony of fear, turning towards the figure at my side, I saw him standing as before, his head holding at arm's length above his head a great light, which flickered fitfully over the troubled sea below.

Nearer came the phantom ship, until the bow of the vessel nearly touched the rocky shore, throwing off the lurid light which she carried on board. Already I felt sick and dizzy; a few more seconds and I should have lost my senses. At length, with a vigorous and last effort, I threw off my antagonist, who, missing his precarious footing, disappeared off the cliff, and I felt myself free. The vessel disappeared suddenly, as if the black night had finally engulfed him. Then I seemed to hear voices and a grinding crash—but afar off, mistily as from another land; for I felt I was becoming unconscious, my senses were fading, and though I knew it not, I must have swooned.

It was several weeks before I recovered consciousness. When I did so, I found myself in my own room, weakly, as I have every reason to believe, having come to the cliff, and being so unprepared for rough weather—I determined to retrace my steps with all the speed in my power; and strapping my painting trunks upon my back again, I turned for home.

How from the place where I stood, the cliff fell sheer half way to the beach; then rocks of great magnitude ran along its base, and extended far into the sea, presenting a grand and yet gloomy sight, as the dark water dashed over them, throwing up feathery spray high into the air.

As I turned to leave the spot, I was suddenly startled apparently from far out to sea. It seemed like the faint beat of a drum, rising and falling with the strength of the wind, and strangely mingling with the roar and dash of the waves upon the shore.

Although it was dark for that time of the evening, I could yet plainly discern the entire surface of the ocean, and not a trace of a vessel of any description was there in sight. Puzzled by this mysterious occurrence, but thinking it was most likely caused by the action of a strong wind blowing from the subterranean cavern, I was once more about to battle my way against the tumultuous wind homeward, when it appeared to me that the sound was approaching nearer—nearer, floating across the dark, troubled waters in a prolonged roll, as from a great number of drums. They were beating what seemed to be the call to quarters, from some unknown ship; for, look as I might, not a vestige of one was to be seen upon the ocean.

As it came nearer—not five hundred yards apparently from where I stood, I distinctly heard the single and double beat, and all the varied sounds produced by the drummer's art; but still this awful fact: I was compelled to acknowledge there was no ship in sight, and the sound sprang as from the bosom of the waters! As I stood spell-bound, with all my nerves stretched to a full tension, and my gaze eagerly fixed on the sea beneath my feet, I felt a strange feeling come over me, as though something were behind or at my side.

At first, if my life had depended upon it, I could not have had the power of will or body to turn around. A strange terror had overcome me, and my feet seemed rooted to the ground, but, at length, with a sudden effort of determination, I turned, and beheld a sight that filled me with horror. A gleam of the watery moon now stole out from behind a cloud, and disclosed the dark figure of a man, or what seemed to be a man, standing erect, but in an attitude of expectancy on the verge of the cliff. From whence he had appeared, and when, I was quite unable to say, as I had not noticed his presence before, but he stood there, wrapped in an old-fashioned mantle, and a great number of bodies, his head bent downwards, as if I could see nothing as yet of his face.

Suddenly the roll of the drum recommenced, and with a quick motion of his head, he gazed long and earnestly out to sea.

Never shall I forget that face. To this day I can recall no individual feature but the eyes. There are times indeed, when you are quite unable to take in, as it were, more than one particular of a mass of events; and it was so now. I can distinctly remember this man's eyes, for they were remarkably brilliant and glowing; what the rest of his face resembled I cannot tell, already was I so confused as to see nothing more of him.

Suddenly I saw, moving from the shadowy mist which now almost covered the ocean, the outline of a large and stately vessel, gliding almost imperceptibly through the water, but emitting long and rapid, except the prolonged roll of the drum, which rang out with startling effect upon the still night air. As I noted its quiet onward progress, I saw for the first time, to my horror, that she was steering straight upon the reef which lay along the cliffs at my feet.

I tried in vain to call loudly, to warn those on board of her; but my voice died in my throat, and do what I could, I was unable to bring forth a sound. In an agony of fear, turning towards the figure at my side, I saw him standing as before, his head holding at arm's length above his head a great light, which flickered fitfully over the troubled sea below.

Nearer came the phantom ship, until the bow of the vessel nearly touched the rocky shore, throwing off the lurid light which she carried on board. Already I felt sick and dizzy; a few more seconds and I should have lost my senses. At length, with a vigorous and last effort, I threw off my antagonist, who, missing his precarious footing, disappeared off the cliff, and I felt myself free. The vessel disappeared suddenly, as if the black night had finally engulfed him. Then I seemed to hear voices and a grinding crash—but afar off, mistily as from another land; for I felt I was becoming unconscious, my senses were fading, and though I knew it not, I must have swooned.

It was several weeks before I recovered consciousness. When I did so, I found myself in my own room, weakly, as I have every reason to believe, having come to the cliff, and being so unprepared for rough weather—I determined to retrace my steps with all the speed in my power; and strapping my painting trunks upon my back again, I turned for home.

How from the place where I stood, the cliff fell sheer half way to the beach; then rocks of great magnitude ran along its base, and extended far into the sea, presenting a grand and yet gloomy sight, as the dark water dashed over them, throwing up feathery spray high into the air.

As I turned to leave the spot, I was suddenly startled apparently from far out to sea. It seemed like the faint beat of a drum, rising and falling with the strength of the wind, and strangely mingling with the roar and dash of the waves upon the shore.

Although it was dark for that time of the evening, I could yet plainly discern the entire surface of the ocean, and not a trace of a vessel of any description was there in sight. Puzzled by this mysterious occurrence, but thinking it was most likely caused by the action of a strong wind blowing from the subterranean cavern, I was once more about to battle my way against the tumultuous wind homeward, when it appeared to me that the sound was approaching nearer—nearer, floating across the dark, troubled waters in a prolonged roll, as from a great number of drums. They were beating what seemed to be the call to quarters, from some unknown ship; for, look as I might, not a vestige of one was to be seen upon the ocean.

As it came nearer—not five hundred yards apparently from where I stood, I distinctly heard the single and double beat, and all the varied sounds produced by the drummer's art; but still this awful fact: I was compelled to acknowledge there was no ship in sight, and the sound sprang as from the bosom of the waters! As I stood spell-bound, with all my nerves stretched to a full tension, and my gaze eagerly fixed on the sea beneath my feet, I felt a strange feeling come over me, as though something were behind or at my side.

At first, if my life had depended upon it, I could not have had the power of will or body to turn around. A strange terror had overcome me, and my feet seemed rooted to the ground, but, at length, with a sudden effort of determination, I turned, and beheld a sight that filled me with horror. A gleam of the watery moon now stole out from behind a cloud, and disclosed the dark figure of a man, or what seemed to be a man, standing erect, but in an attitude of expectancy on the verge of the cliff. From whence he had appeared, and when, I was quite unable to say, as I had not noticed his presence before, but he stood there, wrapped in an old-fashioned mantle, and a great number of bodies, his head bent downwards, as if I could see nothing as yet of his face.

Suddenly the roll of the drum recommenced, and with a quick motion of his head, he gazed long and earnestly out to sea.

Never shall I forget that face. To this day I can recall no individual feature but the eyes. There are times indeed, when you are quite unable to take in, as it were, more than one particular of a mass of events; and it was so now. I can distinctly remember this man's eyes, for they were remarkably brilliant and glowing; what the rest of his face resembled I cannot tell, already was I so confused as to see nothing more of him.

Suddenly I saw, moving from the shadowy mist which now almost covered the ocean, the outline of a large and stately vessel, gliding almost imperceptibly through the water, but emitting long and rapid, except the prolonged roll of the drum, which rang out with startling effect upon the still night air. As I noted its quiet onward progress, I saw for the first time, to my horror, that she was steering straight upon the reef which lay along the cliffs at my feet.

I tried in vain to call loudly, to warn those on board of her; but my voice died in my throat, and do what I could, I was unable to bring forth a sound. In an agony of fear, turning towards the figure at my side, I saw him standing as before, his head holding at arm's length above his head a great light, which flickered fitfully over the troubled sea below.

Nearer came the phantom ship, until the bow of the vessel nearly touched the rocky shore, throwing off the lurid light which she carried on board. Already I felt sick and dizzy; a few more seconds and I should have lost my senses. At length, with a vigorous and last effort, I threw off my antagonist, who, missing his precarious footing, disappeared off the cliff, and I felt myself free. The vessel disappeared suddenly, as if the black night had finally engulfed him. Then I seemed to hear voices and a grinding crash—but afar off, mistily as from another land; for I felt I was becoming unconscious, my senses were fading, and though I knew it not, I must have swooned.

It was several weeks before I recovered consciousness. When I did so, I found myself in my own room, weakly, as I have every reason to believe, having come to the cliff, and being so unprepared for rough weather—I determined to retrace my steps with all the speed in my power; and strapping my painting trunks upon my back again, I turned for home.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

DR. N. P. RICHARDSON,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
OFFICE—No. 14 Downey's Block, upstairs.
oc24f

DR. A. S. SHORE,
HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.
OFFICE—Nearly opposite the Post Office.
RESIDENCE—No. 13 Franklin street.
oc24f

DR. H. S. ORME,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—In Lanfranco's
Building, No. 71 Main street.
oc24f

Office Hours from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 2 to 3 P. M.
oc24f

DR. JOSEPH KURTZ,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—In Heintzsch's
Block, Commercial and Los Angeles streets.
oc24f

Special attention paid to diseases of the EYE AND EAR.
oc24f

DR. J. W. OLIVER,
HOMEOPATHIST.
OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—Spring street, opposite the Mayor's Office.
oc24f

D. W. C. FRANKLIN,
MECHANICAL OPERATIVE.
OFFICE—39 Spring street, next to Fire Engine House.
oc24f

DR. A. LOEBEL,
SURGEON AND CHIROPODIST.
Alameda street, opposite the Sisters'
School. Horns and bunions extracted without using knife, files or medicine, and without causing pain. Cures ingrowing nails, warts, moles, and corns. Treats sciatica and successfully all kinds of sores of every description. Charges moderate and satisfaction guaranteed.
oc24f

HENRY T. HAZARD,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
OFFICE IN TEMPLE BLOCK,
LOS ANGELES, CAL.
oc24f

Special attention given to business in the United States Land Office.
oc24f

McCONNELL & KING,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Downey's Block, Main St., Los Angeles.
oc24f

A. BRUNSON,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
OFFICE—Rooms 28 and 29, Temple's new building, Los Angeles.
oc24f

GLASSELL, CHAPMAN & SMITH,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
OFFICE—TEMPLE BLOCK upstairs, Los Angeles, California.
oc24f

JAMES C. HOWARD,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Downey's Block, Los Angeles.
oc24f

M. WHALING,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
OFFICE—No. 18 Downey Block Los Angeles.
oc24f

CHARLES LINDLEY, J. S. THOMPSON,
LINDLEY & THOMPSON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
OFFICE—Room Nos. 51 and 52, over Temple's new building, Los Angeles.
oc24f

W. L. MARSHALL, WILLIAM GOULD,
MARSHALL & GOULD,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW—OFFICE,
Opposite the Court House, Rooms Nos.
18 and 19 Temple Block, Los Angeles, Cal.
oc24f

BATES & BRAMAN,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSEL-
ORS AT LAW—Office, Nos. 3 and 5, Temple's Building, corner of Spring and Temple streets, Los Angeles, Cal. Practice in all the National and State Courts. Collections made, demands prosecuted and the settlement of estates in all parts of the United States.
Special attention paid to the examination of land titles and to business in the U. S. Land Office.
oc24f

LEW. C. CABANIS,
NOTARY PUBLIC, CONVEY-ANCER AND SEARCHER OF RECORDS for County.
OFFICE—No. 44 Temple Block, Los Angeles, California.
oc24f

V. E. HOWARD & SONS,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
TEMPLE BLOCK, LOS ANGELES.
oc24f

A. A. WILSON,
ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR.
OFFICE—Room No. 11, Temple Block, Los Angeles, California.
oc24f

JUDSON & GILLETTE,
SEARCHERS OF RECORDS
AND CONVEYANCERS.
TEMPLE BLOCK, LOS ANGELES.
oc24f

G. W. MORGAN,
REAL ESTATE AGENT.
Four doors south of the Post Office, Temple
Block, Los Angeles, California.
oc24f

H. M. MITCHELL,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR
at law. Office—Room No. 10, Temple
Block, Los Angeles. P. O. Box 456.
oc24f

CHAS. E. MILES,
HYDRAULIC ENGINEER,
LOS ANGELES, CAL.
REFERS TO—Dr. J. S.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1873.

The DAILY HERALD has nearly double the circulation of either contemporary paper published in Los Angeles. As an advertising medium it is consequently of DOUBLE the value.

The Political Ground Swell.

The panic and demoralization which smote the Republican party in October, seems to have been intensified in the late election, and the effect in many parts of the country is overwhelming. The Independent movement has been successful, either wholly or in part, in nearly every State where elections have been held. Even in Michigan and Massachusetts the panic has reached the disciples of Grant. In the latter State, the majority of 72,000 one year ago, has been reduced to 12,000 or 15,000. Gen Banks has beaten his Republican competitor for the State Senate, and all the large cities—Boston, Lowell, Worcester and Springfield, have given Democratic majorities, showing the astonishing bewilderment and demoralization of the Republican party in the Old Bay State. In Michigan, the special election in the 5th Congressional District, to fill the vacancy in Congress, caused by the death of Hon. W. D. Foster, is so close that only the official count can decide the contest. Mr. Foster was elected just one year ago before by over 11,000 majority.

In Wisconsin, the Republicans had as their candidate for Governor one of the most popular men in the State, and who was not suspected of any favor for railroads or monopolies. The Republican majority of 18,000 one year ago has been overcome, and Governor "Cad. Washburn" is defeated, together with the entire State ticket, and the "Grangers" are triumphant. Even the Legislature has a majority of "Farmer's candidates." In a majority of the counties of Illinois, Iowa and Kansas, the farmers have been successful and elected their candidates. The key note which was sounded in California in September, and re-echoed in October, is resounding throughout the length and breadth of the land.

The Leroy-Duret troupe has broken up at Los Angeles. From its disruption a second combination was effected, with Mr. Hudson Liston at the head. After playing with some success in the country—considering the blackberry season has passed—they have returned, and intend proceeding East, paying their traveling expenses by playing en route.—[Chronicle.]

This is true, except in the following particulars: The troupe has not broken up; a second combination has not been formed; Mr. Liston has nothing to do with the troupe; the blackberry season is not over; the troupe have not returned; they do not propose to proceed East, nor do they propose paying their traveling expenses by playing en route.

We are in receipt of one of the best college monthlies published—brimful of news, literature and fancy reading—the Washington College Miscellany. The typography is good, the wording is good—everything is good, racy, new and excellent—worthy an institution of older age and greater fame. By the way, if any Los Angeles citizen wishes to send away his children to be trained in school matters, there is no better school, no more successful teacher in the State, than S. S. Harmon and his talented wife.

Our evening contemporary has a paragraph standing at the head of its editorial columns, claiming "the largest circulation of any paper published in Southern California." This is a misstatement of facts. The circulation of the HERALD is nearly or quite double that of the Express. We shall expect our neighbor to haul down that paragraph, or prove its assertion.

The total vote of the State for Supreme Judges is as follows: McKim, 23,078; Dwinelle, 15,185; McKee, 21,850; Brunson, 15,078; McKim, over McKee, 7,051; over Dwinelle, 12,716. Total vote, 63,933. The figures are official with the exception of eight counties.

SOMEbody ought to look to it that the lighting of the Rink is better hereafter, than it has been for the past two nights. Mr. Gary, with an exhibit of probably the best variety of orange trees in the world, is left out in the dark, and they can not be seen at all. Somebody must remedy this, or the fair will suffer.

The morning after the judicial election, the HERALD estimated McKim's majority at 7,000. The complete returns from all the counties—all but eight official—shows his majority over McKee to be 7,051.

There is no probability whatever, according to present indications, that the Congressional compensation law will be repealed, or even modified. With but two exceptions the members elect have drawn their pay quarterly since the 4th of March at the increased rate, and these two members who are expected have not signified their disinclination to draw their pay, and thus follow the example of their Congressional associates.

We are daily favored with the Los Angeles HERALD. It is a new candidate for popular favor. It is edited and published by Professor Storke, recently of Santa Barbara College. The HERALD is a daily paper, and does great credit to the Professor and the city of the Angels.—[College Miscellany of Washington College.]

Late Telegrams.

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Foreign financial news continue to improve, and the feeling is growing here that the crisis in London has passed. Private dispatches to bankers here confirm this view and say that the improvement extends to all important mercantile centers, so that while the Bank of England's rates continue at nine, prime discounts are doing in London at eight per cent. The New York Banks to-day have over $27,000,000 legal tenders, showing an increasing strength and a disposition to liberal discount. Commercial paper advances from the interior are all brighter, showing a moderate revival of business and confidence in foreign exchange steady; produce exports continue heavy, freights to Europe high.

Capt. Duncan, United States Shipping Commissioner, is accused of monopolizing the whole business of shipping seamen, and of having 32 agents for that purpose whom he pays out of money received instead of paying the same into the United States Treasury.

Irving, the confessed Nathan murderer, has promised to make further revelations about the murder, if the authorities will dismiss the prosecution against him for burglary.

A letter from Havana gives a full account of the capture of the Virginian by the Spanish gunboat Tornado. It says that at the time of the capture, the Virginian was flying the American flag, which was pulled down by the Spanish officers and their ensign hoisted instead. A court martial was held on board the Tornado, and all the prisoners held as pirates. The Virginian had papers for Colonel Ryan, and all the passengers appeared on the papers as laborers for railroads.

At New York to-day Rosencweig was tried for the crime of abortion; the jury found a verdict of not guilty.

The books of Aufmatt & Co., importers, were seized to-day. The firm are charged with having under-valued importations of silk to the extent of $200,000.

TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 13.—A train from Brownsville was thrown from the track yesterday by a bar of iron being laid across the rails. The engine, and one car filled with passengers, were wrecked, but only one person, a lady, was injured.

MISCELLANEOUS.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—W. F. Whipple's cassimere mills, at Cayon District, Vermont, was burned to-day. Loss, $100,000.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Whitman C. Bosten, partner in the banking house of Riggs & Co., shot himself this morning.

FOREIGN NEWS.

MADRID, Nov. 13.—The insurgent forces at Cartagena have opened a heavy fire on the land and naval forces of the Government.

No official news have been received at Washington to-day from Cuba.

DEATH OF GENERAL HARDEE.

Lieutenant-General William J. Hardee, one of the best soldiers in the army of the late Confederate States, was buried at Selma, Alabama, on the 8th of November, 1873.

General Hardee was a native of Georgia and a distinguished officer in the United States Army before the war of secession.

He was the author of a work on tactics, which up to the breaking out of the war, was the manual of instruction in the army. He was of French descent, and inherited his military talent from a long line of distinguished French soldiers. In soldierly qualities he was inferior to no leader of the Southern forces except, perhaps, Jackson and Lee. He held the same relative position to Lee, Johnston and Jackson that Thomas, Sherman and Sheridan. He was very much like Thomas as a soldier, and perhaps he and Thomas may be truly considered the best soldiers in the two armies.

Unobtrusive, and without self-assertion, they were each always equal, if not superior to the requirements made upon them in any emergency.

They both enjoyed the soubriquet of "Old Reliable." Neither of them ever failed successfully to hold the field where they fought, and although sometimes with defeated armies, neither of them, or the forces under their immediate command, were ever whipped.

In General Hardee's last great battle at Averysville, when opposed to Sherman with an overwhelming force, he retired from the field with credit, and though overwhelmed, was not beaten. One of the greatest soldiers the world ever saw died when Hardee died.

In the South there are a thousand anecdotes of his genial good-humor and kindness, and no soldier who ever lived was more endeared to his men than he.

C.

PACIFIC COAST TELEGRAMS.

EXCLUSIVELY TO THE HERALD.

SAN FRANCISCO.

New Whaler... Killed by a Coal... The Great Race... List of Passengers... Stocks, Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Captain J. H. Blethen has been appointed Chief Wharfinger by the Board of Harbor Commissioners.

It has been ascertained that the soldier Nathaniel Banks, found dead near the Presidio, yesterday, was killed accidentally by falling over an embankment.

Sheriff Adams refuses to comply with the Auditor's request to give over to the City Treasurer the fees collected by him as mileage, and which, it is claimed, he illegally holds. The Sheriff says his legal advisers have counseled him to pursue this course, and that he is anxious for some legal decision in the matter.

Patrick Barr, watchman at the mail steamers' wharf, was killed by a coal cage weighing about 1,500 pounds. It is supposed that he was caught on the platform when the cage landed, while in a fit of some kind. He leaves a wife in this city.

Weather, at present, clear. John Lewis died suddenly to-day, and his friends claim that he was poisoned by his paramour, Nellie Lewis.

Furt, one of the sailors of the ship Sunrise, was on the witness stand in the United States Circuit Court, nearly all day, testifying against the mate, Frank Harris. He is very intelligent, and gave his testimony with great particularity. It may be stated that Harris began his system of cruelty the first day out from New York, and kept it up until he reached this port.

His custom was to beat the men with his feet and fists, but on several occasions he used a bludgeon upon them with terrible effect. Once, while the witness was describing how Harris undertook to force a stick of wood down a sailor's throat, the angry demonstrations of the spectators obliged the Marshal to command order, and threaten to clear the courtroom. The cross-examination of Furt will probably consume most of tomorrow's session.

Pool selling on the great race to come off on Saturday, is brisk to-night, all the horses are entered, Stevens, Daniels, True Blue, Hubbard, and Maria Hall, will go; other entries are expected to be made to-night.

Ex-Chief of the Fire Department, David Scannell, arrived to-night from the east, and was escorted through the streets, by the Veterans of the Mexican War, and his old friends of the Fire Department.

Passengers per Orizaba: For San Pedro—Miss Whiting, E. Dashi and two children, E. P. Murphy and wife, Mary Hanch, J. L. Marshall, J. L. McCaskill, A. W. Hale, G. B. Legg, Mrs. Hines, Mr. Hines, Mrs. Bayley and daughter, R. Anderson, E. O. Way, W. Stoddard, W. Wilson and boy, Miss Stoddard and two children, W. J. Melton wife and two children, P. G. Cunningham and wife, J. A. Arzaga, J. E. Whitler, P. H. Newhall, H. Sloan, W. C. McCay, C. Goanson, R. Scrimgeour, T. Lewin, G. D. Patrick, T. B. Jackson, Mrs. Owens, F. Bensen wife and three children, J. Tangsky, J. E. P. Hanch, J. C. Hammond, P. Amraux, Mr. McKenzie, H. Bethe, Mrs. Artzarena, Mrs. Summester and two children, M. Sullivan, P. M. Williamson, J. E. Malorady, J. W. Clark, E. Griffin, J. H. Dickenson and wife, N. Buck, E. A. Gearing, Miss M. Logan, G. Conrad, A. H. Kai, Fanny Bernstein, W. H. Perry.

For Santa Barbara—Mrs. J. Hill and infant, L. Downing, Jr., wife and daughter, Miss French, Mrs. Bailey, R. Cohen, Mrs. Beecher, M. A. Edicade, Mr. Stala, H. C. Beckwith, J. E. Bennett, Miss Howell, J. P. Owell wife and son, E. Mitchell and wife, Mrs. Pefferman, Mrs. Comins, M. Wilinski, L. Norman, Mrs. Andrews and daughter, Miss Bodenheimer, D. W. Thompson and wife, N. Bodenheimer, D. Smith, J. McAlister, D. J. Padlock and wife, Mrs. Perry, E. Parker, Mrs. De Le Guerra, Mr. De Le Guerra, F. Kellogg and wife, J. Cartel, D. H. Allen, H. P. Stone, V. E. Harmon, Rev. E. Graham, J. Tuttle.

For San Diego—Mrs. Wentworth, Mr. Upson and wife, S. Levy, Mrs. Morey and child, Mrs. Guinn, Mr. Morcy, Mr. Kerns, P. Lawrence and wife, J. W. Gale, Gunn, Mrs. G. Merritt and daughter, Miss McClung, Miss Anst, Miss Camps, Miss Quinton, Mr. Quintana and child, J. Amat, J. T. Bixby, R. Rea, J. M. Campbell and wife and three children, G. Merritt and two children, Miss Ray, T. Donnelly, T. E. Hughes, W. L. Miner, C. Hardel, J. C. Fister, A. Fisher, S. Strutz, J. Foley, Lizzie Russell, Rev. M. Crosswell, P. Packard, J. Jewell, E. Crouse, J. D. Donnel, B. McGellan.

Following are the transactions at the Stock Board, Nov. 13:

MORNING BOARD.
Gold & Currency... 12 1/2
B & B... 8
Savage... 5 1/2
Chollin... 5 1/2
Hale & Norcross... 28
Crown Point... 27 1/2
Yellow Jacket... 60 1/2
Imperial... 10 1/2
Empire... 10 1/2
Kentuck... 10 1/2
Ph... 31
Belcher... 31
Confidence... 7
Con Virginia... 3
S. Nevada... 15
Seg Belcher... 62 1/2
Overman... 24
Justice... 6
Dane... 4 1/2

BOARD.
Meadow Valley... 15
Raymond & Ely... 5
Eureka & Co... 5
W & C... 6
Ph... 6
American Flag... 24
Huhn & Hunt... 14
Belmont... 14
Chief of the Hill... 1
Newark... 3
Rye Eater... 3
El Dorado... 6
Hayes... 2
Caroline... 2
Kentucky... 2

MARYSVILLE.
Bank Robbers Sentenced.

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 13.—John A. Tony, one of the persons who attempted to rob Decker & Jewett's bank, was to-day sentenced to the State Prison for two years. Wm. Winkley, the other one, went down this morning for a four year's residence at San Quentin.

SAN BERNARDINO.

From Arizona—Two Dozen Good Indians in the Happy Hunting Ground—Departure of Miners.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 13.—From Prescott, Arizona, November 8th, via San Bernardino November 13th, we received the following:

Good news from the front. Twenty-four erring red brethren were sent to the happy hunting grounds, and nine more were captured. A letter from the front, received by us a few days ago, contains the following: "The troops under command of Major Brown, killed twenty-four, and captured nine Indians in Tonto Basin, near the east fork of the Verde, on the morning of the 27th of October. Machodata, the brother of Deleche, was found among the dead. The Indians had evidently only lately committed some depredations. Among their effects were found a complete miners' kit, miners' clothing, and leather belt, with silver buckles. The Brown alluded to is Major W. S. Brown of the 5th Cavalry, who commands Camp Grant. He had a mixed command of white and Indian soldiers. The way he came to catch the savages napping, was while searching for Indian signs, he caught three Indian gentlemen, who sooner than suffer in the least, led the way to the Rancheria of their red brethren, which was surrounded in the night, and whipped out in the morning. Thirty or forty Indians escaped; these went well ballasted with lead. The Indians must have been Tonto Apaches, and from articles found in their possession the fellows who committed the recent murders and robberies on Pine Creek. Brown, you have done well, your men have done well for your country, and your countrymen will never again suffer at the hands of the departed twenty-four. From our heart we thank you and yours for this latest achievement."

Two companies of five men each, left this morning for the Palm District intending to work their mining claims, viz: A. Starke, S. P. Waite, N. Noble, James Grant, George Hamilton, John Vasselles James Winter, James Waters, E. A. Nesbet, and Wm. McDonald.

SAN DIEGO.

Races Postponed—Reports of Rich Mines in Lower California Continued.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 13.—To give foreign horses a chance to get here and prepare for the races, the meeting advertised for this month has been postponed to the third, fourth, and fifth of December. There are ten horses now on the track in training it is expected to be a grand affair.

Further reports from the placer mines, as published in the Union of to-day, show that the mines are very rich; the want of water is the only drawback. The dirt has to be hauled three miles to running water.

The schooner Johannes sailed from Seamon's lagoon.

SACRAMENTO.

A Vagrant Leaves Town—The Weather.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 13.—James Willis, who was convicted yesterday of vagrancy, received a sentence of ninety days imprisonment, but the commitment was withheld on condition that Willis should leave the city or go to work. Willis left by the afternoon train, accompanied by Carrie Mortimer, who refused to be parted from him, their destination being understood to be Stockton.

The weather has been quite cold to-day; raw and damp during the forenoon, with a slight fog.

Hon. James A. Duffy, State Senator from Sacramento County, arrived by to-day's train at Sacramento from an Eastern trip in excellent health.

STOCKTON.

Fatal Railroad Accident—Interest in the Great Race.

STOCKTON, Nov. 13.—This evening a young man named Thomas Tibbets, baggage master of the Copperopolis railroad, met with a fatal accident at Peters' station on the road. Tibbets, who was on the top of the cars, lost his balance and fell under the cars, striking on his head and dislocating his neck; the wheel passed over his body causing instant death. Mr. Tibbets has been in the employ of the Company for some three years, and was a resident of this city.

Much interest is manifested here over the probable result of Saturday's great four mile race. A large number of Stocktonians leave for San Francisco to-morrow, to witness the race.

CHERRY CREEK, Nov. 13.—A shooting affray occurred here this morning, the parties being James Quigley, and a one legged man named Norton. Quigley had put up a fence on a cross street, and Norton undertook to tear it down. Quigley went to fix it when Norton commenced quarreling with him, telling him to go and arm himself, as he was already fixed for him. Both parties drew pistols, Norton fired at Quigley, who returned the fire, several shots being exchanged, Norton receiving one shot in his wooden leg.

ANAHEIM HOTEL, MAX NEBELING, Proprietor.

SUPERIOR ACCOMMODATIONS for travelers and visitors. Stages from all parts of the country arrive and depart from this house.

Attached to the hotel are Mitchell's Pioneer Livery and Feed Stables.

NEW TO-DAY.

WANTED—A SITUATION BY two young German girls, in American families. Inquire at the Lafayette Hotel, 1041-39.

PLANTERS' HOTEL, Cor. Los Angeles and Center Streets, ANAHEIM, CAL., JOHN FISCHER, PROPRIETOR.

OFFERS FIRST-CLASS ACCOMMODATIONS to the traveling public. All stages arrive at and depart from this house. Terms moderate. 1041-42.

MERCED THEATER. J. H. LEROY, MANAGER. E. LIPSIS, AGENT.

LAST NIGHTS OF THE SEASON! Another Great Shakspearean Treat!

Friday Evening, Nov. 14th. Shakspeare's Great Tragedy of OTHELLO!

In consequence of the length of this great play it will constitute the entire evening's entertainment. Admission—Dress Circle, $1; Parquette, 50 cents; Private Boxes, $5. Box office open at 10 A. M., when seats may be secured without extra charge. Doors open at 7:30. Commences at 8.

Saturday Afternoon at 2 O'clock. Grand Honeymoon Matinee. Saturday Night—Romance and Jollies. MONDAY EVENING, Nov. 17, positively last night of the present season, on which evening it will be for a grand and extraordinary benefit tendered to Madame Marie Duret and J. H. Leroy.

ENGLISH DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT AND BALL.

Turn Verein Germania, AT THEIR HALL.

Saturday Evening, Nov. 15th.

The evening's performance will commence with H. T. Cray's beautiful Domestic Drama, in 3 acts, entitled, Meg's Diversion.

BROKEN VOWS. Characters... By the Members.

Comic Instrumental Act, By L. MYERS, his first appearance, when he will perform on Tin Whistle, Pagan, Harmonica, Violoncello, Trumpet, Guitar, Banjo, Staff Bells, Kitchen Bellows, Flute and common Earthen Flower Pots, and play correctly upon four different instruments at one and the same time.

To conclude with A Grand Ball.

Doors open at 7 o'clock; performance to commence at 8. Tickets, admitting gentleman and lady, $1. Tickets to be had at the door on the evening of the performance, and of the members.

WANTS. [Wants published at the rate of 50 cents per line for each insertion, or 10 cents per line for three insertions. No advertisement under this head taken for less than 25 cents.]

WANTED—A SITUATION BY woman to do chamber and parlor work, attend children and assist in sewing, at the Mission. Wages, $25 per month. Apply by letter to Mrs. General Stoddard, 1043-14.

WANTED TO BUY 2,000 YOUNG ewes—Address communication, stating kind, price, and where they may be seen, for one week, to C. F. HERALD office. 1047-38.

WANTED—A SITUATION AS book-keeper or writer in an office; good reference given. Address "K," at this office. 1047-38.

WANTED—$10,000 TO LOAN ON notes, in sums of $100 to $500. Apply to 1047-38.

WANTED—A RENTER FOR 240 acres of land. Possession given immediately. Apply to S. H. SLAUGHTER. 1047-38.

WANTED—TWO OR THREE DAY BOARDERS can be accommodated with first-class board at COL. PEELE'S. 1047-38.

El Dorado Store. A. C. CHAUVIN, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, Country Produce, WINES, LIQUOR AND TOBACCO.

76 MAIN STREET, LOS ANGELES, 1041-1043.

AT $4 00 EACH! 200 Dozen Ladies' Iron Frame Hose, AT 25 CENTS A PAIR.

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING.

S. LAZARD & CO.'S GRAND OPENING

—OF—

FALL & WINTER GOODS

—ON—

Monday, Nov. 3, 1873, COMPRISING A MOST SELECT STOCK OF THE LATEST STYLES OF

Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Clothing,

CONSISTING IN PART OF

50 Pieces all Wool Striped Poplins, At 50 Cents per Yard;

25 Pieces Scotch Plaids, At 50 Cents per Yard;

60 Pieces Plain Satin de Chine, At 62 1/2 Cents per Yard;

20 Pieces Striped Colored do, At 62 1/2 Cents per Yard;

10 Pieces Striped Black do, At 62 1/2 Cents per Yard.

100 Pieces Assorted all Wool Em-press Cloth, in different qualities;

25 Pieces all Wool Serge, Water Proof, Redingote Cloth, Draps d'Ete, Etc., Etc.

—ALSO, FULL LINES OF

Black Alpacas, Black Empress Cloth, Black Foulards,

Black Biarritz Cloth, Black French Merino,

Black Wool Delaine, Black Bombazine,

Black Cashmeres.

—ALSO—

The Greatest Novelty of the Season, Imported expressly for this market,

100 Assorted New Styles

TALMAS, SACQUES, Etc., Etc., Etc.

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

—ALSO—

FOR SALE—TO LET.

EL RANCHO DE LOS FELIZ.

The property of LEON BALDWIN, containing about 480 acres of irrigable land, 2500 acres of grazing land, and 1200 acres of hill land, 4 1/2 MILES FROM THE CITY.

There are two large and well furnished houses, fitted up with all modern improvements, on the ranch; one of which stands in the center of a large and beautiful garden, approached by a private road. The river flows at the foot of the meadows adjacent to the house and game of every kind is abundant all over the ranch. The dairy is built of brick, and has accommodations for 30 milk of 150 cows, and the corrals, stables, out-buildings, etc., are all in perfect order. There are six miles of good post and plank fencing on the property, and the situation is one of the loveliest in Southern California.

TERMS—One-third cash, one-third in six months, and the balance at one, two or three years, bearing interest at 5 per cent. per month, at the option of the purchaser.

As the title to the water for the 480 acres of irrigable land is absolutely perfect.

The title to

Los Angeles Herald.

CITY AND SUBURBS.

Use Every style of Printing and Glazing done in the highest style of art, and at reasonable rates, by C. T. Dapland & Co.

Mr. Allen ought to know that all kinds of gentleness clothing will be made with neatness and dispatch by a regular tailor. The making and finishing of Western Mill cloth is specially at L. W. Fitzpatrick, corner of Court and Spring streets.

Mr. J. C. Jones keeps fine Havana and Domestic cigars, No. 61 Main street, Downey's Block, Thompson & Carson's saloon.

Mr. The title of immigration is steadily setting in, and the first thing eastern people do is to throw away their New York hats and buy a new one of Dixson's. They say there is no comparison between the two.

The only place where the genuine interchangeable rubber spectacles can be found is at Fisher & Co's Jewelry Store, 67 Main street. They are made of the best material, uniform in density and of high refractive power. Come all ye who live for good eyesight, and try them.

Of Special Interest to Farmers.

At the Esperanza Store, No. 108 Main street, will be found the largest and choicest stock of Merchandise, Groceries, Liquors, Cigars, etc., in Southern California. It is well known that at this store you can buy all goods in their line at from five to ten per cent. cheaper than at any other store in Los Angeles; and that the highest prices are paid for all kinds of country produce. All goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.

Time is on the wing. To make it pass more slowly and pleasantly watch it closer by looking at a clock at Fisher & Co's Jewelry Store, 67 Main street, Los Angeles.

Look at This!

The only place in the city to get choice Engravings, Chromos, Oil Paintings, etc., is at M. V. Pond's, 66 Main street, where you can buy them cheap for cash, or pay in weekly installments of from 25 cents to $1, according to the amount purchased.

Look Here.

"Eat, drink and be merry" at Johnny Moore's San Francisco Restaurant, on Commercial street. Johnny is an acknowledged prime among restaurateurs, and knowing this, the Command of Arrangements have authorized him to establish a branch at the Fair grounds for the accommodation of attendants at the races. The best meats and vegetables are used and cooked in the most palatable manner. Take your meals at Johnny's and you will feel truly refreshed. All meals 25 cents.

The Cynus House.

The California oysters kept in the elegant establishment of Mr. Cynus, near the Pico House, have special qualities, owing to the system followed by the above named gentleman in fattening and preserving them as fresh as when taken out of the sea. Lovers of oysters can see for themselves and be convinced. Chocolate, coffee, tea and other refreshments, all first-class, are also served there. There can be found for sale Sherry Wine, Muscatel, imported from Spain, by Mr. Cynus, and best brands of Havana Cigars. He also keeps a good stock of perfumery, toys and candies of all kinds. Hours 2-5.

Give a zong of Fischer Who makes the best fry; Four and twenty bibles, Going down to buy. Ven der shore is ahead Mister Fischer begins to sing, For he feels so mighty good. He is his cousin's best friend, There was a man with sword a' leg, Ven his catch no longer ran, And he goes down with that shore And pays a pran new von.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The fair has filled the hotels with guests and made it lively for the restaurants.

Telegrams in the telegraph office for the following persons: Joseph Howe, C. E. French, Jose Serrano, J. C. Harris.

Mr. Cassion, of the "Harp and Shamrock" is renovating that favorite resort, and will soon re-open, with everything in "style order."

Judge C. E. Huse, of Santa Barbara, is in town, looking in at his old friends, and attending to duty connected with his profession.

M. C. Baker, who repairs all kinds of sewing machines and sells all kinds, is now in the city. He is a skillful workman, in whom the public has great confidence.

Monday, the 17th, at 10 A. M., is the time for the arraignment of all those against whom indictments have been found by the Grand Jury. They must be present.

The pile of packing boxes in front of S. Hellman's store, "disinuates" that that gentleman is adding extensively to his already large and varied supply. If one can not get what he wants at Mr. Hellman's, he must be fastidious indeed.

The "Delmonico," especially at meal times, somewhat resembles a bee-hive in the honey season. So numerous are its patrons that it is sometimes a double set of waiting—one waiting for the hungry within, and the other waiting outside for a chance to get in.

The music in the theater has been much improved during the past week. Last night the troupe played "The Stranger" to a good and appreciative audience. The "Wily Don't She Marry," was greeted with loud applause.

The Committee on Penmanship, Drawing and Composition, composed of Rev. M. Campbell, S. A. Waldron, A. Saxton and Misses Scott and Sullivan, will meet at 9 o'clock on Monday, at the High School Building, to decide who are entitled to the prizes offered by the Fair Association.

The number of freighted teams which left the depot on the 12th inst. were as follows: To San Bernardino, 1; to Los Angeles, 1; to B. & R., 1; to Tehachas, 2; to B. & R., 1; and one team with freight for Independence. On yesterday, 2 teams left for Independence, and 1 for San Bernardino.

The gymnastic exhibition by the Turn Verein Society last evening, was as largely attended as the "merry time" devoted. A popular play at the theater, a political meeting, and other gatherings announced for last evening, no doubt caused the absence of many from the Turner Hall who otherwise would have been present. The program of the programme, that in which the performance was wholly by scholars, was carried out in a manner highly creditable to the participants. The pyramids and tableaux were especially well arranged and entertaining. On account of the smallness of the attendance, it was deemed best to omit the second part of the programme, and instead, to clear the floor for such as desired to enjoy themselves for an hour or two in the "merry time." Good music had been already provided, and the ball was as enjoyable as these re-unions generally are.

MEETING OF THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

Fourth Day.

ON THE FAIR GROUND.

Some of the attendants on the racing horses gathered on the track, in front of the grandstand, yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, and amused themselves betting in various forms and a small way. When they had exhausted apparently all expedients for keeping the betting up, they concentrated their attention on the track. It was not long before the horses were in the track in a specified time, and the driver of the team attached to it went leisurely along, all unconscious of the attention paid to his movements. Other amusing bets were also made.

THE VISITORS.

Commenced coming in lively about 11 o'clock, and by half past 11 there were many vehicles, some containing both sexes, on the ground, and a good representation of the fair sex on that part of the grand stand allotted to their use. Just previous to this, Mr. Rose, the owner of Irene Harding, arriving in a carriage, accompanied by a friend, and when he alighted he did it with a good sized bag of specie in each hand. The parade of stock occurred about half past 11. All of the animals appeared in excellent condition, and some of them looked very beautiful.

Mr. Rose started officially, from the Judges' stand, the award of premiums would be announced to-day.

CONCLUSION OF THE IRENE-TARGET CONTEST.

Precisely at 12 o'clock the Judges ordered Irene and Target to be brought on the track again for the purpose of finishing the contest that had been commenced on the previous day and that could not have been conveniently concluded then owing to the lateness of the hour when the third heat was finished. Irene had won two straight heats and Target one. Mariposa had run with Irene and Target, on Wednesday, in this race, and was distanced in the third heat.

Previous to the commencement of the fourth heat, L. J. Rose sold Irene to Charles Thomas, of San Diego, for $2,000.

FOURTH HEAT.

The scoring for this heat was not commenced until about a quarter to 1 o'clock. Both horses got off—very even start—on the first attempt. Target led a little at once. At the first quarter pole Target was nearly a length ahead of Irene. Voice on the grand stand at this juncture: "They are pulling Target." At the half-mile pole they were neck and neck. (Voice in front of the grand stand: "Twenty dollars on Irene.") There were very few spectators on the home stretch, and Target came in first by about half a length. Time, 1:50.

THE POOLS.

were now re-opened. Target brought $65 in a pool of $130. They also sold even in other pools.

FIFTH HEAT.

There was no trouble scoring. They got off at once, Target leading by about a third of a length. He kept this distance ahead steadily until the half mile pole was passed. Irene now gained, but did not get ahead, and they came down the homestretch very nearly neck and neck. Target won the heat by about a length. Time, 1:49; the fastest time ever made on this track. This gave Target the race. There was intense excitement at this time.

FIVE MILE RUNNING RACE.

The first regular race of the day was a single dash of five miles—running, for a purse of $200—between the first horse, $75 to the second. There were three entries:

Lady Nance, bay mare, owned by C. Durfee; Sultan, owned by Dr. Stanway; and Bandera, bay horse, owned by Francisco Machado.

Mr. Slaughter, one of the judges, and starter, said: "The horse Sultan, that was entered for the single dash of five miles is withdrawn from the race, on account of being lame. He will be galloped one mile with a boy on him to satisfy the public that this statement is correct. All pools taken on Sultan, will be declared off."

The rider of Lady Nance was Charles Smith, colors, red, white and blue. Of Bandera, Vicente Logo, colors, the Mexican; red white and green.

FIRST MILE.

Both horses scored at once, and getting off Lady Nance slightly led and was leading at the first quarter. Both were held in. At the half, Lady Nance was ahead by about a length. Sultan afterwards lost a spur and Lady Nance got about two lengths ahead and, passing the judges stand they were in this order. Time: 1:56.

SECOND MILE.

After passing the judges' stand Bandera gained on Lady Nance, but Lady Nance was still ahead at the quarter. A little further on, and they were neck and neck and continued very nearly so the half mile. At the half mile they were even. Lady Nance now fell back some, and this was followed by a spurt in which both came out nearly even. They were very nearly even when the home stretch was entered, and in this order passing the judges stand, Time: 2 minutes.

THIRD MILE.

Vandera at first seemed fatigued, but soon rallied. Lady Nance was still first at the quarter. Bandera again rallied, and they ran afterward nearly a tie, and the judges gained the lead and passed the judge's stand, about two lengths ahead of Lady Nance. Time—2:07.

FOURTH MILE.

Both continued going well—spurring some. Bandera was about a length ahead at the quarter. (Great rejoicing among the Mexicans.) Bandera kept gaining, and was two lengths ahead at the half. Lady Nance lagged some now. (Bets on Bandera were freely offered by the Mexicans.) Bandera still kept the lead, and passed the judge's stand about ten rods ahead of Nance. Time—2:06.

FIFTH AND LAST MILE.

Bandera, it was thought, was about worn out, and Lady Nance gained some. But Bandera was ahead at the quarter some three or four lengths. After passing the quarter, Bandera made the gap wider. At the half Bandera was from ten to fifteen rods ahead, and got in well ahead of his competitor. Time—2:17.

Whole time for the five miles—10:27. Both horses were very greatly fatigued.

Nance was the favorite in the pools by 5 to 4.

TROTTING RACE.

The second regular race of the day was trotting, to wagon and rule, between two horses, one of the "merry time" were five to enter, but only two entered. Purse of $210; $150 to go to the first horse, $60 to the second.

THE ENTRIES.

Gretchen, a black mare, owned by L. J. Rose; and Milk Boy, a light bay, owned by Mr. Gifford, of San Diego.

In the pools Gretchen was the favorite, selling 3 to 1 over Milk Boy. The pools were tolerably heavy.

FIRST HEAT.

Milk Boy had the pole. They got off well together after two ineffectual attempts to do so. The black led a little soon afterwards. They trotted pretty even for a while, but at the quarter Gretchen was several lengths ahead. Milk Boy was urged more and the gap commenced to close slightly. Milk Boy was held in, and Gretchen broke badly coming home. Gretchen got about four lengths ahead on the heat. Time, 2:57.

SECOND HEAT.

Milk Boy got the lead slightly, but Gretchen soon overhauled and passed him. While Gretchen was leading handsomely, Milk Boy broke. At the quarter, Gretchen was six lengths ahead. Milk Boy then broke, and afterwards trotted for some time very unevenly. At the half, Milk Boy was gaining on Gretchen, but broke. Gretchen also broke for a few seconds. But Milk Boy passed Gretchen just before the judges' stand was reached, and won the heat in 3:01.

THIRD HEAT.

Milk Boy got off nearly a length ahead of Gretchen. Gretchen closed up and passed Gretchen, reaching the quarter, Milk Boy breaking badly; and he broke again when Gretchen was at the quarter and half. Getting down to a trot, he gained rapidly and Gretchen broke and was passed. But Milk Boy again broke, and was passed by Gretchen, and got in first, by about six lengths. Time, 3:00.

FOURTH HEAT.

There was some delay about getting off, but when this was done, Milk Boy had the lead by about half a length. He broke, however, before he was fully one hundred yards from the start. Gretchen kept trotting well, and at the quarter pole led by several lengths. Milk Boy broke again and fell far behind, enough to have been distanced, it was said; and broke again on the home stretch. The heat was won by Gretchen in three minutes, who also won the race.

CLOSING SCENES.

An impromptu running race—milk heat—arranged between a sorrel horse owned by G. Anzer, and a gray horse owned by Jesus Machado. The latter won in 2:45.

There were two short distance scrub races after that, and this closed the day's doings on the track. The stretch for home, now, by the visitors in various kinds of vehicles, and amidst a cloud of dust, was very animated and boisterous.

THE COURTS.

County Court—SEPTEMBER 13, 1873. Mayor and Common Council vs. Charles J. Wingerter—Suit for condemnation of land for public use. Additional witnesses having been examined, the Court confirmed the report of the Commissioners.

San Francisco Markets—By Telegraph.

SAN FRANCISCO, SEPTEMBER 13, 1873.

WHEAT—Extra is selling at $1.00 per bushel. The market is very quiet and demand being principally for local millers. There is some inquiry for feed, and 800 sacks choice wheat for export, at $1.00 per bushel.

BARLEY—500 sacks good feed, $1.57; 2,000 sacks light bay, $1.45; bay brewin, $1.50. OATS—From $1.00 to $1.10, and in light demand. HAY—Quotable at $14.00 per ton. POTATOES—300 sacks choice Humboldt, $1.25. Average for various kinds is $1.00; sweet, $1.25.

PROVISIONS—The Commercial Herald reports the sale of 25 bbls mutton head at $10.00 per barrel; 50 bbls prime mutton head, $17.50; 25 bbls California Bacon, $11.25; per lb, 25.00; Eastern lard, $15.00; 40 bbls Eastern lard, $9.00; 150 c California lard, $10.00.

WOOL—Sales for the past week have been about 75,000 lbs. The stock is large and the market is very quiet. There is no export demand, as it is impossible to get advances for market, as the supply is so small. Foreign wools in bond at Boston and New York are being shipped to the West, and the New England States are being supplied with wools from the West. The market is very quiet, and the demand is not so great as it was a year ago, when business in manufactures is expected to revive.

Exports.

Following is a list of exports received at the depot, awaiting shipment Nov. 13:

Wool, bales, 20; Bullion, bales, 1180; Wine, cases, 3; Merchandise, cases, 1; Hides, bales, 2; Hides, bales, 1; Following are the shipments per steamer Mohongo, November 12:

Wine, cases, 3; Merchandise, cases, 1; Hides, bales, 2; Hides, bales, 1; Beans, sacks, 23; Spices, bales, 2; Brandy, jugs, 16; Spices, bales, 16; Beans, sacks, 1; Eggs, boxes, 3; Beans, sacks, 1; Spices, bales, 16; Lemons, boxes, 12; Fruit, boxes, 1; Dried Fruit, boxes, 1; Fruit, boxes, 1; Oils, cases, 16; Trunk, cases, 1; Pop Corn, sacks, 16; Total tons, 1187.

Thermometrical Record.

According to the plan of the Smithsonian Institution, kept specially for the Herald by Brodick & Co., November 13:

9 A. M., 60; 2 P. M., 66; 9 P. M., 62.

Average, 62.7.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.

B. F. Standifer, of Spadra, Los Angeles county, has brought to the Herald a sample of wheat to demonstrate the truth of the assertion that the rich hill-lands (mustard land), of southern California, is good wheat land, not liable to rust, etc.

He says: "This wheat was grown on the hills west of W. W. Rubottom's, and had no irrigation. It was seeded in January, 1873, seven or eight days after the first rain in said month. It was plowed in with one span of horses, with the old fashioned bull-tongue plow, (used in the southern States), plowed 12 to 15 inches deep, then a drag was used to level and mash the clods. This is the result—from seven to twelve bushels per acre. If it had been sown thick the yield would have been much greater. It is very true, but should be sown thick. I think best to seed in November, and summer-fallow the ground. Mowers and headers can do good work on the hillsides. In my opinion the hills east of Los Angeles, San Bernardino and San Diego, make far better hay than barley."

Real Estate Transactions.

Deeds filed for record for the 24 hours ending at 4 o'clock, Nov. 13th, 1873, as reported for the Daily Herald by Judson & Gillette, Searchers of Records for Los Angeles county:

James W. Potts to Irving A. and C. H. Dunsmore—Lot 5, in block A, Mott tract, 9x165; $2,000.

J. W. Potts to J. D. Hunter—Lot 6, block A, Mott tract, $3,000.

Jose L. Hunter to James W. Potts—Portion of lot 7, block 17, Hancock's survey city donation lot, $1,000.

PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT PARTY—PRELIMINARY ORGANIZATION.

A meeting of voters was held last night in the District Court Room, for the purpose of sustaining the "People's Independent Party," and to perfect the county organization. Judge Thompson was chosen to preside, on motion of Dr. Richardson. Colonel J. Warner acted as Secretary. The discussions were participated in by Messrs. Doss, J. J. Warner, Gillette, Gould, Barrows, Holden, Bean, King, Thompson, Lindley and Gordon. The platform of the People's Independent Party, adopted in September at Sacramento, was indorsed. The following committee was elected and empowered to call a primary election of the People's Independent Party, to elect a Central Committee: From the county at large—Edward Ely and J. Bixby. First (Supervisors) District—Dr. Richardson and J. S. Smith. Second—Major Gordon. Third—J. E. Comas. Fourth—W. B. Older. On motion, the Chairman of the meeting, Judge Thompson, was added to the committee. The meeting then adjourned. A full report of the proceedings, phonographically reported, will appear in to-morrow's issue of the Herald.

Hotel Arrivals.

Clarendon—Henry C. Roberts, R. C. Blaker, Samuel Hickman, John Hoge, San Gabriel mines; General P. Banning and family, Wilmington; D. E. Mills, Anaheim; Abraham Hoag, San Jacinto; Mrs. L. J. Lockhart, Mrs. P. J. Lockhart, Richmond; Gov. Drew, Rubottoms; J. B. Lankershire, San Fernando; Otto Bauer, El Monte.

Lafayette—F. Lewis and wife, A. J. Brown, Katie A. Harris, Max Nebelung, Alisa Greek, Davis Greek, H. M. Sparrow, Anaheim; S. Burnett, Mrs. Vail, San Bernardino; San Ventura; J. B. Bacon, Jas. Darley, Rancho Nequili; Job Carr, Tacoma; H. H. Jones, San Gabriel.

Pico—Wm. Borden, Anaheim; G. E. Smith, Ellis A. Hains, Oakland; J. S. French, San Francisco; M. Fryer and family, Ella Arnett, Spadra; W. A. McCauley, W. E. Leech, San Buena Ventura; C. E. French and family, Willie Trask, San Joaquin Ranch; E. S. Barry, Wilmington.

United States Hotel—Jas. E. Ward, Overland Stage Company; J. D. Byrd and wife, Anaheim; O. C. Harrington, Breakwater; J. W. Lowe, Carson City; F. Lambourn, La Priente; G. Matulich, Cerro Gordo; J. W. Tibbett, El Monte.

THE COURTS.

County Court—SEPTEMBER 13, 1873. Mayor and Common Council vs. Charles J. Wingerter—Suit for condemnation of land for public use. Additional witnesses having been examined, the Court confirmed the report of the Commissioners.

San Francisco Markets—By Telegraph.

SAN FRANCISCO, SEPTEMBER 13, 1873.

WHEAT—Extra is selling at $1.00 per bushel. The market is very quiet and demand being principally for local millers. There is some inquiry for feed, and 800 sacks choice wheat for export, at $1.00 per bushel.

BARLEY—500 sacks good feed, $1.57; 2,000 sacks light bay, $1.45; bay brewin, $1.50. OATS—From $1.00 to $1.10, and in light demand. HAY—Quotable at $14.00 per ton. POTATOES—300 sacks choice Humboldt, $1.25. Average for various kinds is $1.00; sweet, $1.25.

PROVISIONS—The Commercial Herald reports the sale of 25 bbls mutton head at $10.00 per barrel; 50 bbls prime mutton head, $17.50; 25 bbls California Bacon, $11.25; per lb, 25.00; Eastern lard, $15.00; 40 bbls Eastern lard, $9.00; 150 c California lard, $10.00.

WOOL—Sales for the past week have been about 75,000 lbs. The stock is large and the market is very quiet. There is no export demand, as it is impossible to get advances for market, as the supply is so small. Foreign wools in bond at Boston and New York are being shipped to the West, and the New England States are being supplied with wools from the West. The market is very quiet, and the demand is not so great as it was a year ago, when business in manufactures is expected to revive.

Exports. Following is a list of exports received at the depot, awaiting shipment Nov. 13:

Wool, bales, 20; Bullion, bales, 1180; Wine, cases, 3; Merchandise, cases, 1; Hides, bales, 2; Hides, bales, 1; Following are the shipments per steamer Mohongo, November 12:

Wine, cases, 3; Merchandise, cases, 1; Hides, bales, 2; Hides, bales, 1; Beans, sacks, 23; Spices, bales, 2; Brandy, jugs, 16; Spices, bales, 16; Beans, sacks, 1; Eggs, boxes, 3; Beans, sacks, 1; Spices, bales, 16; Lemons, boxes, 12; Fruit, boxes, 1; Dried Fruit, boxes, 1; Fruit, boxes, 1; Oils, cases, 16; Trunk, cases, 1; Pop Corn, sacks, 16; Total tons, 1187.

Thermometrical Record.

According to the plan of the Smithsonian Institution, kept specially for the Herald by Brodick & Co., November 13:

9 A. M., 60; 2 P. M., 66; 9 P. M., 62.

Average, 62.7.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.

B. F. Standifer, of Spadra, Los Angeles county, has brought to the Herald a sample of wheat to demonstrate the truth of the assertion that the rich hill-lands (mustard land), of southern California, is good wheat land, not liable to rust, etc.

He says: "This wheat was grown on the hills west of W. W. Rubottom's, and had no irrigation. It was seeded in January, 1873, seven or eight days after the first rain in said month. It was plowed in with one span of horses, with the old fashioned bull-tongue plow, (used in the southern States), plowed 12 to 15 inches deep, then a drag was used to level and mash the clods. This is the result—from seven to twelve bushels per acre. If it had been sown thick the yield would have been much greater. It is very true, but should be sown thick. I think best to seed in November, and summer-fallow the ground. Mowers and headers can do good work on the hillsides. In my opinion the hills east of Los Angeles, San Bernardino and San Diego, make far better hay than barley."

Real Estate Transactions.

Deeds filed for record for the 24 hours ending at 4 o'clock, Nov. 13th, 1873, as reported for the Daily Herald by Judson & Gillette, Searchers of Records for Los Angeles county:

James W. Potts to Irving A. and C. H. Dunsmore—Lot 5, in block A, Mott tract, 9x165; $2,000.

J. W. Potts to J. D. Hunter—Lot 6, block A, Mott tract, $3,000.

Jose L. Hunter to James W. Potts—Portion of lot 7, block 17, Hancock's survey city donation lot, $1,000.

San Joaquin Land Association to John D. Holland—Fractional northern portion of N.W. 1/4, sec. 2, T. 2 S. & R. W. S. R. M. $750.

There were three mortgages filed.

BANKING HOUSES.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK OF LOS ANGELES.

Capital $500,000

JOHN G. DOWNEY, PRESIDENT

I. W. HELLMAN, CASHIER

Exchange for sale on San Francisco, New York, London, Dublin, Frankfurt, Paris and Hamburg.

Receives Deposits and issues its certificates. Buys and sells Legal Tenders, Government, State, County and City Bonds. Will also pay the highest price for Gold and Silver Bullion. From and after this date, on all monies left on term deposits, interest will be allowed. Los Angeles, July 1, 1871. oct-1m

THE BANK.

W. M. WORKMAN, F. F. TEMPLE.

TEMPLE & WORKMAN, BANKERS.

TEMPLE BLOCK, LOS ANGELES.

Receive Deposits, issue their Certificates and transact a GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.

DRAW ON THE LONDON AND SAN FRANCISCO BANK (LIMITED), AT SAN FRANCISCO.

Exchange for sale on New York, Hamburg, London, Berlin and Paris, Frankfurt.

Legal Tenders, Bullion, Gold Dust and Government, State, County and City Bonds bought and sold. Receive valuations for safe keeping. oct-1m

AT WOLFENSTEIN'S ART

And Photographic Gallery

The Best Pictures of every Description. Old Pictures Copied and Enlarged. Best Artists Employed. Best Facilities in the City. All work Warranted.

JOHN OSBORNE, PIONEER PACKAGE EXPRESS AND CITY PACKAGE DELIVERY.

MOVING PIANOS AND ORGANS A SPECIALTY.

Pianos Unpacked and Repacked.

Anything Delivered, from an Envelope to the largest Case ever shipped, to all parts of the city and country. Baggage carried for in time for the trains.

Leave orders on the slate at the office, in Wells, Fargo & Co's office, corner Main and Market streets, or P. O. box 286. no-1m Partnership Notice.

THE PARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing under the firm name of DUTTER & DUTTER, General Furniture Dealers, was this day dissolved EDUCATIONAL.

SCHOOL GOVERNMENT.

As proper deportment is the crowning excellence for true scholarship, too much attention cannot be paid to it, either by parents or teachers; nor is the highest form of manhood or womanhood attained through mental discipline alone, but through the exercise of education of the mental, moral and physical powers harmoniously combined.

'Tis not enough that a teacher secures order merely that her work may be performed successfully, but in order to develop a symmetrical character, the precepts and principles of the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as ye would that they should do unto you," should be the leading rule of action. But the high form of government, which consists in leading pupils to govern themselves, is not an easy task, and by reason of the skill required, many resort to the easier and quicker means of ruling by fear, while others govern by love, that is, their pupils obey them only because they love them, which, by the way, is not the best, as it lasts only for the time being. The business of the teacher is to train human beings for the active duties of life, and the measure of success in practical life is estimated by strength of character, the basis of which is laid during the early period of one's life. How earnest and faithful then should a teacher be, and how responsible is the position!

Among the natural qualifications for government are, ability to discriminate character, sympathy for others, ease in manner, magnetism, etc. The faculty of the mind, feeling, will, or quality of the mind in conjunction with strong animal powers; the exercise of which may be spontaneous, or subject to the will, and varied by distance, time, condition of body and mind, surroundings, weather, ventilation, work performed, etc.

Who is there that cannot recall to mind persons who have this peculiar power of impressing others, simply by being in their presence. By a subtle influence difficult to describe, pupils under their control may be subdued, seemingly without an effort. Fortunately are those who possess such a power. Another leading characteristic of one naturally qualified to govern, is ability to discriminate character, first, by noticing general features of the face, peculiar attitudes and gestures, the character of dress, etc., also by noticing acts, as to their origin, or cause which gave rise to them, as to their direction, or channel, in which they flow, and the end or purpose to be served by them. By understanding the nature of the child, the construction of the mind and its mode of working, how much more can he accomplish! The teacher should be patient and gentle, by sympathy and kindness the affections are gained, the passions subdued and the stubborn will conquered. The disposition manifested must be decided, yet not harsh, austere; pleasant, yet not light, frivolous; severe yet not monotonous, active and energetic. By much thought and careful study the power to command may be acquired. One must have a knowledge of the elements which enter into good government, also a knowledge of the human mind in society in forming character, and must cultivate a habit of noticing the forces at work in the pupil, and the tendencies to which they lead. Keen judgment is necessary, in order to make discriminations as to what might be overlooked in the conduct of the pupil, and in regard to what might be censured, and also as to when, where, and how censure and punishment should be inflicted. The character of school-room movements should be easy, graceful and decided, and their law governed by the work and condition of the school. Children are close observers, if not, should be taught to be, and as their teachers are, so will they be to a certain extent. They are born with an abundance of curiosity and a natural desire to know. A skillful teacher will cultivate this desire by leading them by easy and gradual steps from what they already know to something beyond. Their perceptive faculties are keen and alive to every novelty, and will remain so unless neglected, checked, and just in proportion as right methods are used in teaching will the task of government be made easy.

ARITHMETICAL EXAMPLE.—A pole 34 feet in height, perpendicular to the horizon and standing on the side of a hill, was broken, but not completely severed, the top resting on the ground 30 feet down the hill from the foot of the pole; the horizontal distance of the broken part from the bottom of the pole being 10 feet; required the height of the stump.

Solutions of the above example will be inserted as soon as possible after being received.

THIS AND THAT.

The bank of England has raised its rate of discount to 9 per cent. Too much money going out of the country.

"Suffering and Sorrow" was Mr. Beecher's subject a week ago. In view of a hard winter just ahead it may have been appropriate.

Albert Bierstadt, the artist, who has been in California during the past two years, making sketches among the mountains, is in New York.

During the past year Oakland has expended these sums: Gas, $17,939; schools, $95,481; general fund, $50,000; salaries, $10,050; interest, $30,000.

Mark Twain and family arrived in the steamship Batavia yesterday from Europe. They are staying at the St. Nicholas Hotel.—N. Y. Herald, November 2.

Books to the value of $67,073 were imported into the port of New York from July to October. The value of newspapers imported in the same time was $1,549.

The amount expended for labor and materials in the capitol ground improvements and in the completion of work upon the capitol, was, for the month of October, $1,801.15.

Germany sells 20,000,000 thalers' worth of dissolved silver coin in the United States, which bid higher for it than any other bidder. The sum is equal to $14,520,000 American money.

Members of Congress and attorneys who had claims settled by the Geneva award are already moving in the matter of legislation as to the parties who should receive it. Underwriters will not fail to claim a proportionate share. The subject is likely to give rise to protracted debate.

MERCHANT TAILORS.

J. STRELITZ,
MERCHANT TAILOR—
MAIN ST., NEAR WELLS, FARGO & CO.
Makes the most fashionable style of CLOTHING to be obtained in the southern country. Also a large stock of the Newest and best Cloths

Doeskins, Beavers, Fancy Cassimeres, Velvet and Silk Vestings, etc. A full guarantee.
Refers to the principal gentlemen of the city for whom he has made clothing.
No necessity to send to San Francisco for good fitting suits. ocl2-1p

I. HAUCH,
MERCHANT TAILOR.
NO. 6 COMMERCIAL STREET.
All the LATEST STYLES received by every steamer, and made up in the latest styles and most suitable manner, and on the most reasonable terms.
CALL AND EXAMINE these goods, before giving your orders. ocl2-1p

J. L. WARD & CO.
MANUFACTURERS' AGENTS.
—REPRESENTING—
Baker & Hamilton's
AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS

—AND—HARDWARE!
STAR MOLINE PLOW;
BAXTER UPRIGHT ENGINES;
JAMES PORTABLE ENGINES;
THE CELEBRATED RAIN WAGON.

Illustrated Catalogues, with prices, can be had by application at our office. ocl2-1p

Important to Winemakers
THE UNDERSIGNED BEG TO inform producers of wine that they can place at their disposal a machine, patented March 1875, for

Heating Wines,
by which means the taste of new wines, and all acidity is destroyed, and the wines preserved without future change. The process at once makes it like a THREE-YEAR OLD WINE, and destroys the germs of fermentation.
Price, per Gallon, TWO CENTS. ocl2-1p
M. A. LAFAYETTE & CO., Los Angeles.

Los Angeles City Water Co
LOCATION OF WORKS, CITY and County of Los Angeles, State of California.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Los Angeles City Water Company will be held at the office of the Company, 31 and 33 Main street, in the city of Los Angeles, on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1875, at 12 o'clock M., for the election of officers for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.
EUGENE MEYER, Secy. ocl2-1p

The Riverside Colony!
PERSONS IN SEARCH OF A
HEALTHFUL LOCATION, far from the fog and damp winds of the coast, should not fail to visit the COLONY OF RIVERSIDE. The climate of this location is

The Best in the State for Those Afflicted with Lung or Bronchial Diseases.
Those wishing to engage in the cultivation of VINES AND SEMI-TROPICAL FRUITS, will find here one of the Very Best Places in Southern California for that purpose, it being UNCRAPSED IN CLIMATE, SOIL, AND ABUNDANCE OF WATER.

A limited number of INVALIDS will find good accommodations for the winter at the hotel and in private families.
On and after the first of January, 1876, a Daily Line of Carriages will connect Riverside with the railroad terminus, so that passengers from Los Angeles can reach Riverside within a few hours.
J. W. NORTH,
President Southern Cal. Colony Association.
Riverside, Oct. 27, 1875. ocl2-1p

LAFAYETTE STORE.
P. N. ROTH & CO.
NO. 3 MAIN STREET.
Wholesale and retail dealers in

Gents' Furnishing Goods,
Provisions, Fine Wines, Liquors, Cigars and Whiskies. ocl2-1p

GAMBRINUS BREWERY,
FIRST STREET, LOS ANGELES.
Fine Lager Beer for sale
IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT.

HENRY BUDDEN,
PIANO-FORTE TUNER, REGULATOR AND REPAIRER.
Organs and Melodeons Adjusted.
ALL WORK GUARANTEED.
REFERENCES—Brodrick's Store; Editor Herald. ocl2-1p

F. GAUTHIER,
FAMILY CHARTERS COFFEE
AND SPICE MILLS, No. 50 Los Angeles street.

Keeps constantly on hand ROAST AND GROUND COFFEE of all kinds, Pepper, Ginger, Allspice, Cayenne, Cloves, Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Fresh Ground California Mustard. COFFEE fresh ground every morning. ocl2-1p

LOS ANGELES WOOD YARD.
ALAMEDA STREET, OPPOSITE
Griffith, Lynch & Co's Lumber Yard.
DRY WOOD always on hand, and sold at the Lowest Cash Rates,
and delivered to any part of the city. FULL MEASUREMENT guaranteed every time.
Orders left at the principal grocery stores, or at the yard, promptly attended to. ocl2-1p

The Napa Gang Plow.
TO THE FARMERS OF LOS Angeles County: We call your attention to the new IMPROVED GANG PLOW, patented by D. A. Mendenhall of Napa, and adopted by the Grangers of this State. The points of superiority are: Lightness of draft, it being a centre draft; a castor wheel in the rear, which makes it turn in a space sufficient to accommodate its length; it has a falling pole and can, by sliding, be adjusted to the driver's weight, and removes all pressure from the horses' necks. We only ask farmers to call and examine for themselves.
HELEMAN, HAAS & CO.,
Napa, Cal. ocl2-1p

COSMOPOLITAN CIGAR DEPOT
IMPORT THE PUREST AND BEST
Havana Cigars, and keep on hand
Chevings and Smoking Tobacco
Pipes, Cigarritos and Fancy Articles.
Main St., next door to W. F. & Co's Express. ocl2-1p

National Restaurant
CORNER OF COMMERCIAL and Washington streets, Los Angeles.
We furnish THE BEST TWENTY-FIVE
CENT MEALS of any restaurant in town. Wholesome food, good cooking, and a clean and airy dining room, has made this restaurant a favorite. LINDNER & BOTCHER.
101 ocl2-1p

J. B. SAUNDERS & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND CHEMISTS,
72 MAIN STREET, LOS ANGELES.
THE CHOICEST TOILET ARTICLES, the PUREST DRUGS and PATENT MEDICINES of all kinds. See Prescriptions carefully compounded day and night. ocl2-1p

WATCHES, CLOCKS, DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, SPECTACLES AND SILVERWARE.
AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

HARPER & DALTON,
Tin, Sheet Iron and Copper Ware,
FORCE AND LIFT PUMPS,
COOKING AND HEATING STOVES.

HARPER & DALTON KEET THE LARGEST STOCK IN LOS ANGELES OF THE MOST VARIED GOODS.
EVERY KIND OF
Household Furniture,
Kitchen Furniture,
Agricultural Implements,
PLUMBING, ROOFING GAS FITTING AND JOBBING OF ALL KINDS
Promptly and Neatly Executed at LOW RATES.

Remember the Address:
HARPER & DALTON,
NO. 31 MAIN STREET, (Downey's Block) LOS ANGELES.
AGENCY OF THE HOME MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.

BRODRICK & CO.
(ADJOINING THE POST-OFFICE, LOS ANGELES),
BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS.
A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF Office Stationery & School Books.
Miscellaneous Books not in stock promptly furnished at Publishers' Prices.
DEALERS IN MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS AND SHEET MUSIC.
Agents for Steinway Pianos and Burdett Organs.
NEW PUBLICATIONS JUST RECEIVED.

WORKMAN BROS.
MANUFACTURERS AND IMPORTERS OF HARNESS, SADDLES, BRIDLES, WHIPS, SADDLERY WARE, Etc.
A GOOD ASSORTMENT OF
Ladies' and Gentlemen's Traveling Bags, Satchels and Valises on Hand.
FINE CARRIAGE, BUGGY, STAGE AND TEAM HARNESS AND SADDLES
OF OUR OWN MANUFACTURE, CONSTANTLY ON HAND.
WE ARE PREPARED TO OFFER GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO PURCHASERS.
REPAIRING PROMPTLY AND CAREFULLY ATTENDED TO. Come and see us at the sign of the BIG HORSE, 70 MAIN STREET, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA.

MATTHIAS GRAY,
623 and 625 Clay street, San Francisco, and 101 First street, Portland, Oregon,
AGENT FOR STEINWAY'S GRAND, SQUARE AND UPRIGHT PIANOS,
For the whole Pacific Coast.
Also Agent for the BURDETT ORGAN, the SHONINGER ORGAN, HAINES PIANO, the Tremble Bridge Guit, Church Square, KRAVICH & BACH, ERNEST GABLER and KRENSCH UPRIGHT PIANO, and the ONLY Music Publishing House on the Pacific Coast. See BRASS AND IRON INSTRUMENTS, of the finest quality and tone. Music mailed on receipt of marked price.

HOTELS.
United States Hotel,
The largest and most commodious Hotel south of San Francisco.
THE UNDERSIGNED BEG
to inform the traveling public that they have leased this WELL-KNOWN HOTEL, and from their experience can truly say that here permanent and transient boarders will find a HOME.
FOUR PRIVATE FAMILIES
We have suites of Rooms at moderate prices. The extensive acquaintance we have formed throughout the State with the Travelling Community, is a sufficient guarantee that this House will always be their FAVORITE RESORT, and we shall endeavor to maintain our reputation by keeping
THE BEST THE MARKET AFFORDS
for our table, and the CHOICEST WINES AND LIQUORS for our bar.
We have all Spring Beds at this Hotel.
Our terms are moderate. Call and see HAMMILL AND DENKER, ocl2-1p

CLARENDON HOTEL,
MAIN STREET, LOS ANGELES.
THIS FINE AND COMMODIOUS
hotel, formerly known as the "Bella Union," has been enlarged, refitted, painted, and refurnished in the RICHEST STYLE THROUGHOUT.
Its ELEGANT SUITES OF ROOMS and ample accommodations offer special advantages to local as well as to transient visitors.
The Table is not to be Surpassed out of San Francisco, and is constantly supplied with the choicest delicacies. Nothing will be first to render the house complete with all the luxuries, conveniences and appliances of a FIRST-CLASS HOTEL.
The Western Union Telegraph Offices communicate with the reading room.
The Hotel Carriages are constantly at the disposal of guests.
J. M. STAPLES & CO.
W. L. USTICK, Manager. nov1-1p

LAFAYETTE HOTEL.
New Throughout
THE PROPRIETOR DESIRES TO inform the traveling public that this well known house has been THOROUGHLY
RENOVATED AND REBUILT
THROUGHOUT,
and now offers accommodations equal if not superior to any other house in Los Angeles. SINGLE ROOMS, OR ROOMS EN SUITE.
The Eating Department will be conducted with special care. nov1-1p

PICO HOUSE,
LOS ANGELES, CAL.
FIRST CLASS HOTEL,
FOR TRAVELERS AND TOURISTS.
Centrally Located—Frontage on Three Streets.
The BEST Table,
THE BEST Rooms,
THE BEST Accommodations.
ocl2-1p CHAS. KNOWLTON, Prop'r.

THE BEST! THE BEST!
THE HOWE
SEWING MACHINE AHEAD!
HIGHEST PREMIUM FOR SEWING AT THE VIENNA EXPOSITION.
Gold Medal and Cross of the Legion of Honor at Paris Exhibition.
The Wilson of Cleveland Received a Medal of Merit Only.

OUR NEW IMPROVED MACHINE
Stands without a rival, and should find its way into every family. It has reached the highest state of perfection. The Sewing Machine yet produced, and its sales are constantly increasing throughout the world.
140 Sold in Los Angeles County
IN ONE YEAR.
Second hand Machines
OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS,
Sold Cheap for Cash, and Repaired.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO'S SEWING MACHINES have become celebrated the world over. The work done on these machines is unsurpassed—sewing the thinnest material and the heaviest goods with equal facility, and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness or quivering over seams.
The Attachments for Hemming, Felling, Braiding, Cording, Quilting, Tucking, Binding and Gathering are of the latest, improved patterns, and are superior to those used on any other machine.
The HOWE MACHINES are the STRONGEST and SIMPLEST, and seldom or never give any trouble in operating. They are the oldest established in the world (Mr. Howe being the original inventor), and are in advance of all others in improvements and perfection of mechanism.

H. CAMPBELL,
for Southern California,
16 COMMERCIAL ST. ocl2-1p
HENRY DANIELS,
FIFTH STREET, OPPOSITE JONES CORRAL.
HORSE-SHOEING AND PLOW WORK done in the most workmanlike manner. The very best material used. Charges reasonable. ocl2-1p

DOTTER & BRADLEY,
(SUCCESSORS TO DOTTER & LORD.)
NO. 86 MAIN STREET,
Furniture Dealers,
Have a Better Assortment than Ever!
NEW AND CHOICE GOODS
CONSTANTLY ARRIVING.
Prices Still Further Reduced
Elegant Parlor Furniture made to order to suit taste of purchaser, at SAN FRANCISCO PRICES, and more durable work guaranteed.
Superb Walnut, Laurel and Mahogany Bed-rooms suits at remarkably low rates.
Also, Common and Medium Furniture, of new and novel designs, at prices to correspond. No second hand Goods handled by this firm in any shape. No misrepresentation allowed.
Fine Spring Mattresses a specialty. Great variety of Wall Paper, Window Shades, Lace and Nottingham Curtains, Cornices, etc., etc. Music Stands, Piano Stools and Piano Covers at less than San Francisco prices. Elaborate Draperies furnished, of any design, drawings of which may be seen on application. Only House in the city who have a wagon ESPECIALLY built for the safe and careful moving of Furniture. Goods delivered anywhere within the city limits, FREE OF CHARGE.
SOLE AGENTS FOR THE NEW AND COMPLETE SUBSTITUTE FOR PLASTERING.
Agents for the Improved and the NEW LOCK-STITCH GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINES.
Some new styles may now be seen never before introduced.

CARPETS,
OIL CLOTHS, MATTING,
Rugs, Mats, Etc.
WE WILL SELL
Carpets, Matting, Oil Cloths, and anything else pertaining to the Trade,
At Less Rates than any other parties in this city.
A new selection of samples of
TAPESTRY AND BODY BRUSSELS CARPETS, FOR THE FALL TRADE, JUST RECEIVED.
Carpets, Matting, Oil Cloth, Etc.,
MATCHED AND LAID DOWN.
Tapestries Cut and Made to Order.
SIDNEY LACEY,
WITH DOTTER & BRADLEY, No. 86 MAIN STREET.

S. NORDLINGER,
No. 8 Commercial Street.
GOOD GOLD GOODS!
Gorgeously Grand Gems!
Rubies, Emeralds, Sapphires,
Garnets, Opals, Onyx,
Amethysts, Topaz, Turquoise.
A FULL LINE OF
Gold, Silver and Platina, Swiss, English and American Stop
Watches—Stem and Key Winders;
BRIDAL SETS, NECKLACES AND LOCKETS,
RINGS, BRESTPINS, STUDS AND BUTTONS,
Cipsy Rings, Wedding Rings, Spectacles, Eye Glasses,
Single and Double;
EIGHT DAY CLOCKS AND REGULATORS, OF EVERY MAKE & STYLE.
The Best Display of Elegant Jewellery in Southern California!

H. S. CROCKER & CO.
IMPORTING STATIONERS,
PRINTERS AND LITHOGRAPHERS,
401 and 403 Sansome Street,
SAN FRANCISCO.
THE MOST COMPLETE
Book and Job Printing Establishment
ON THE PACIFIC COAST.
Orders from the country promptly filled.
Importers and dealers in News, Book and Bill Head Paper, Etc.,
Stationery, Blank Books,
Legal, Letter and Note Paper, Envelopes of every description, Writing and Copying Inks, Copying Presses and Books, Pencils, Pens, Etc., Etc.
AS FULL AND COMPLETE AN ASSORTMENT AS KEPT BY ANY HOUSE IN THE STATE.
401 & 403 Sansome St., San Francisco.
Nos 42 and 44 J street, Sacramento. ocl2-1p

CUCAMONGA WINE.
DEPOT AT LOUIS MESMER'S
WINE CELLAR, underneath the U. S. Hotel. Wine by the Glass, Bottle or Gallon. All kinds of Liquors, Wines and Bitters
at wholesale and retail.
NOTICE.
The public of Los Angeles are hereby notified that no other person in Los Angeles but Louis Mesmer has wines from the Cucamonga ranches.
J. L. SANSEVAIN.
nos-1p

Notice to Creditors.
IN THE PROBATE COURT OF the County of Los Angeles, State of California.—Estate of John Dorn, deceased. Notice is hereby given by the undersigned, administrator of said estate, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary vouchers within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at her residence near the Sisters' Hospital, or at the office of her attorneys, Hubbell & Mitchell, in Temple's Block, in the City and County of Los Angeles.
MARY JANE DORN,
Administratrix of the Estate of John Dorn, deceased.
Dated at Los Angeles, October 30, 1875. ocl2-1p

SAM. BERCE,
Bill Poster and Distributer.
HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, PROGRAMMES, NOTICES, Etc. faithfully POSTED OR DISTRIBUTED throughout the city or surrounding country, with assurance that the work will be faithfully done. Orders may be left at the office of the DAILY HERALD, SAM. BERCE, Los Angeles. ocl2-1p

NEW YORK BREWERY,
CHRIS. HENNE, PROPRIETOR
THE PUREST, FINEST AND MOST BRILLIANT LAGER BEER South of San Francisco.
Orders for DRAUGHT or BOTTLED BEER promptly attended to.
The celebrated Beer from this Brewery defies competition in the State. ocl2-1p
WANTED—SEVERAL DAY
BOARDERS can find good accommodations at Mrs. BACKMAN'S, Spring street, near First. ocl2-1p